DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to the election of claims filed on August 4, 2005. Claims 1-129 are pending. Claims 1-32, 49-117, 120, 121, 124, 126, 127 and 129 are elected. Claims 33-48, 118, 119, 125, 128, 122, 123 and 130 are withdrawn from consideration. Claims 1-32, 49-117, 120, 121, 124, 126, 127 and 129 represent a method for delivering messages based on a subscriber profile. Although the applicant elected the first group of claims, upon further consideration, Examiner found another restriction necessary. Examiner takes this opportunity to further restrict the claims.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 13, 28, 65, 87, 102, 112 and 121 objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. These claims are a repetition of their respective preceding claim..

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
I. Claims 1-32, and 124 are drawn a method for delivering messages based on a subscriber profile, classified in class 709, subclass 206.

- II. Claims 33-48, 118, 119, 125 and 128 are drawn to a method for monitoring network conditions, classified in class 709, subclass 224.
- III. Claims 49-89, and 126 drawn to method for delivering messages based on expiration time, classified in class 709, subclass 207.
- IV. Claims 90-117 and 127, drawn to adding a channel dependent tracking ID to a message, classified in class 709, subclass 228
- V. Claims 120, 121 and 129, drawn to delivering messages based on location, classified in class 709, subclass 207.
- VI. Claims 122, 123 and 130 are drawn to a method for sending a message based retrieval pattern of recipient, classified in class 709, subclass 232.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions in Groups I -VI are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention in Group I has separate utility such as sending a message. See MPEP § 806.05(d). Invention in Group II has separate utility as such a method for monitoring network conditions and prioritizing messages based on the conditions. Group VI has separate utility because it bases the delivery of the message on the retrieval pattern of the recipient, or regulating data transfer. The search required for Groups I is not required for Groups II or III.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Conclusion

Under 35 U.S.C. 133 a shortened statutory period to reply to this Office Action is set to 30 (thirty) days.
